Workplace:	WorkWell Leader:
-------------------	-------------------------

Use this checklist to ensure you have all the evidence you require to apply for Bronze Maintenance Standard Accreditation. Your WorkWell Advisor can support you by reviewing your portfolio and making sure it is ready for accreditation before you submit. Once you submit your completed portfolio, a WorkWell Assessor will review your portfolio of evidence and conduct an on-site visit. Following this you will receive an assessment report. If you have successfully met all criteria you will be awarded the Bronze Maintenance Standard Accreditation.

WorkWell Disclaimer

Signing the WorkWell Accreditation Submission Form constitutes acceptance of this disclaimer.

Toi Te Ora Public Health (Toi Te Ora) is contracted by the Ministry of Health to coordinate a National Approach to Workplace Wellbeing. Numerous Public Health Units within New Zealand have a formal agreement with Toi Te Ora to deliver WorkWell in their region.

The term, WorkWell Provider, refers to all Public Health Units and collaborating organisations which have a formal agreement to deliver WorkWell. The WorkWell Provider is the main contact for the workplace. Toi Te Ora, as the national co-ordinator of WorkWell, is still responsible for overseeing the WorkWell accreditation process for quality assurance.

1. Accreditation

The WorkWell Provider cannot grant accreditation to workplaces that do not meet the accreditation requirements.

If a portfolio does not meet all the criteria set out in the relevant accreditation requirements checklist, the WorkWell Provider is able to provide guidance and advice to the workplace on the steps required to meet requirements.

The WorkWell Provider can carry out inspections and re-assessments of the workplace at any time during working hours with two days' notice to ensure the accreditation requirements are being met/maintained.

The WorkWell Provider and their staff shall not, in any event, be held liable for any loss or damage that may be suffered, whether directly or indirectly by the workplace and/or third party as a result of the workplace action upon any recommendations by the WorkWell Provider.

2. Withdrawal of Accreditation

The WorkWell Provider reserves the right to withdraw accreditation where there is reason to believe the workplace does not meet accreditation requirements. Reasons for withdrawal can include but are not limited to the following:

- Failing to meet/maintain accreditation requirements
- Receiving one or more complaints about the workplace that conflicts with the values of WorkWell
- Failing to comply with this disclaimer
- Failing to cooperate with the WorkWell Provider regarding assessment/review
- Submission of evidence that is false or misleading
- When a workplace's accreditation has expired or been withdrawn by the WorkWell Provider, all WorkWell promotional material must be removed/and or returned (e.g. certificates, signage, logos, information on website).

3. Confidentiality

By submitting for accreditation, the workplace consents to the WorkWell Provider keeping all documentation associated with the submission on file in a secure location. This may include information being stored in the secure members section of the WorkWell website.

The WorkWell Provider will keep this information confidential and will not disclose this information to third parties unless required to do so by law.

The WorkWell Provider may anonymise data for statistical or training purposes.

The workplace also reserves the right to retain a copy of the information held by the WorkWell Provider (provided it has not in the meantime been destroyed or deleted from records).

4. Complaints

Complaints may be lodged by any person who has a concern regarding the service provided by WorkWell Provider. All concerns and complaints are treated the same regardless of how they are made. All complaints are received and dealt with in confidence. To make a confidential complaint or for more information contact either your WorkWell Provider or Toi Te Ora Public Health on 0800 221 555.

5. Disclaimer

WorkWell provides and delivers a framework which supports workplaces to develop and implement an effective and sustainable workplace wellbeing programme to promote the development of a healthy workplace environment. The WorkWell programme, and the WorkWell advisor, is not involved in any way with individual employee matters nor accepts any responsibility or liability regarding individual employee matters. Any queries relating to individual employee matters should be directed to the workplaces Human Resources Department, or other appropriate channel.
